Hands Go Up

(to the tune of "Twinkle Twinkle, Little Star")

Hands go up, and

Hands go down!

I can turn myself around.

I can stand up

On one shoe.

I can listen,

So can you!

I can sit. I'll show you how!

Story time is starting now!

The Hokey Cokey (United Kingdom, and the Caribbean) also known as Hokey Pokey (South Africa, United States, Canada, Australia, and Israel) is a campfire song and participation dance with a distinctive accompanying tune and lyric structure. It is well known in English-speaking countries. It originates in a British folk dance, with variants attested as early as 1826. © 2022 Poets of the Fall Hands Across America had its own theme song, but it was written by jingle writers and sung by studio singers. When the event officially started, participants sang "We Are The World," followed by "America The Beautiful" and ending with the "Hands Across America" song. "Uncle Albert/Admiral Halsey" is a song by Paul and Linda McCartney from the album Ram. Released in the United States as a single on 2 August 1971, it reached number one on the Billboard Hot 100 on 4 September 1971, making it the first of a string of post-Beatles, Paul McCartney-penned singles to top the US pop chart during the 1970s and 1980s.
